

Why don't you guys find something better to do besides attack satellite radio. There are issues with the health care system that need to be addressed like the Pharmaceutical Companys ripping off every American with their stupid high prices. They are lining the Governments pocket so they can rip us off. I don't listen to public radio anymore because of their bad programming. The NAB can kiss my ass!! They need to figure out to compete without government interference.